CLEARVIEW SENIORS GOLF CLUB

Vol. 10 / No. 4

Organized 1975

Winter 2010

Past President's Message

The Club has just concluded the 35th season. The end of the year awards at Verdi's was great success. Thank you to Angelo

DiFilippi and Joe Salvato for putting together an enjoyable occasion, dinner, dancing and a well organized program. Congratulations to all the winners of the club championships and the President's perfect attendance cup. The IronMan Awards for had 7 winners, including Tony Yacovone, who has not missed a Wednesday in 5 YEARS! A special mention to Lou Albi, our longest tenured member for 22 years.

The fall classic was a resounding success. Lou Stovell and his committee did an outstanding job. Their preplanning, organizing and solicitations of sponsors contributed to well run and enjoyable event.

At this time we have openings for new members to apply to the Club. If you wish to propose someone, contact any Board member for an application.

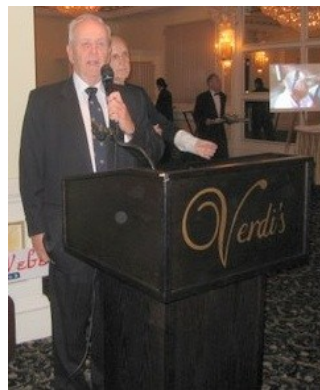

All our committees welcome new ideas and suggestions. Contact the committee chairmen if you wish to offer ideas or if you might want to volunteer.

Have a healthy and happy holiday season, looking forward to opening day which will be April 6, 2011.

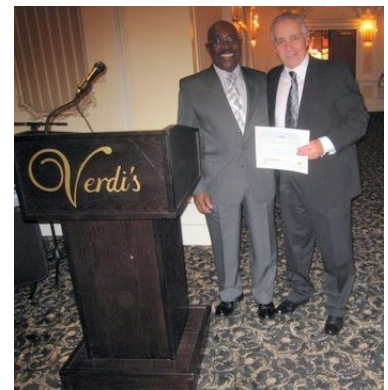

TOM COWHEY
PRESIDENT

FALL CLASSIC

FUN! FUN! FUN!

By Lou Stovell

FUN! FUN! FUN! Was the theme for the 2nd Annual Best Ball Scramble held at Clearview Golf Course on Wednesday, September 29th, 2010.

The thirty-three foursome vied for the championship. Each stroke was finessed and evaluated. The food was sumptuous and plentiful. The glorious sunny day smiled upon us. Probably more important was the camaraderie between the (65) Clearview Seniors and (69) guests. The team captained by Angelo DiFilippi included Clancy Takano, father and son Peter and Frank Vilale headed the prize podium (see photo on lower right). Their score was four under par for the round. The second place winners were Bill Doyle (captain) Walter Winfree, Keon Chu and Frank Spacek also gracing the podium were: Third place winners; Maxine Agee,
